Featured Saint of the Week

St. Marguerite Bourgeoys (1620-1700)

Feast Day: January 12

Marguerite was born in France, the sixth of twelve children. At the age of 15, she became a part of a sodality, ministering to the poor outside of the convent. Marguerite preferred going out into the community instead of working in a cloistered monastery. She also recognized the importance of teaching life skills in addition to religion and academic studies. This was certainly a new approach to education!

The Governor of the French settlement invited her to come to Montreal in New France (Canada) to start a school and teach the poor children of the area. When she arrived, she chose to live alongside the poorer settlers. The colony was rather small, and Marguerite had come to know practically everyone. She soon initiated the building of their first permanent church building. The following year a stone stable was donated to serve as a school house for the students. Her life's work was taking shape.

In 1669 she met with the Apostolic Vicar of New France and received permission locally to form the Congregation of Notre Dame. In 1671 she returned to France to meet with the king for additional approval in order to keep her community from becoming cloistered. She obtained full authority and supporting documentation assuring the viability of her community in New France, which became known as the Congregation of Notre Dame "Secular Sisters." The Church granted their official status in 1698. The mother house is still located in Montreal today.

When she returned to Montreal, there was a newly appointed bishop, who helped Marguerite expand her mission. She also reached out to the Catholic Native community, starting a small school in the mission village. She continued to place service as her focus throughout her life.

In 1683, Marguerite stepped down from her leadership position, but stayed in the community for an additional ten years. Her final two years were spent primarily in prayer and writing her autobiography. She died in 1700 at the age of 79. She is credited with curing two men suffering from life-threatening cases of gangrene. It was 10/31/1982 that Pope Saint John Paul II canonized St. Marguerite Bourgeoys.

Martha's Meals of Mercy

Martha's Meals of Mercy will bring meals to parishioners that are just coming home from the hospital, have just had a new baby, or are going through a traumatic time. The meals will be delivered for a short time- 2-3 times a week for 2-3 weeks.

If you or someone you know could benefit from this ministry OR if you would like to be a Martha and provide meals, please notify the parish office at 225-261-4650. A representative of the ministry will call back and get information such as the number of people in the family, food allergies, likes and dislikes.

Those receiving the meals will be asked to place a cooler at their door where the food will be placed at a specific day and time. That way they will not be disturbed.

Homebound? Need Holy Communion?

Do you know someone who is unable to attend Mass due to illness, frailty or other problems and wants to receive Holy Communion at home? St. Alphonsus has Eucharistic ministers who bring the comfort of Christ in the form of the Eucharist to those who cannot physically come to Mass. In this way, the sick and homebound are united to the Body of Christ present in our community. Contact Donna Lambert at the Church Office at 225-261-4650 to arrange these visits.

Cub Scouts visit Louisiana Veterans Home

Yearly St. Alphonsus Pack 125 chooses a service project to give back to the community and serve as the hands and feet of Christ. This year they elected to help out the Louisiana Veterans Home. The collection of items by the cubs began in the advent season and the care packages were assembled after Christmas. The cubs packed paper bags full of puzzle books, pens, candy, calendars, and notepads. They also collected various games to donate as prizes for bingo at the Veterans Home. Items were collected and assembled into care packages by: Grace Cox, Lawson Ramirez, Logan Cummings, Graham Cox, Heidi Hunsucker, Louis Dolan, Gabriel Blanton, Quentin Newsom, Thomas Clarke, TJ Scofield, Hadlie Beard, Helena Hunsucker, John Lato, Dane Fisher, Harrison Newsom, Jackson Summerell, Jaxon Varner, Landon Sicard, Rowan Parker, Joshua Compton, Alexander Compton, and Elliott Beard. Pack 125 chose January to deliver the gifts at the request of the Veterans home due to a lack of visitors in after Christmas. On Sunday January 26, our cubs delivered care packages to the Louisiana Veterans Home located in Jackson, La. They were met with many smiling faces and warm welcomes and were able to spend time with those who have served others. Care packages were delivered by: Gabriel Blanton, Landon Sicard, Graham and Grace Cox, and TJ Scofield. Photos submitted by Jonathan Blanton.
