The Transfiguration of the Lord

"This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him."

– Matthew 17:5

BUILDING PROGRESS UPDATE

Many of the finishing touches are being put in place. The sign has been installed at the front of the building, as well as the moveable partition in Emmanuel Hall. Ceiling panels, fans, and lights have been installed at the pavilion, and Green Seasons has installed the landscaping. The conference rooms in our Parish Activity Center all have separate A/C systems, so these rooms will be ready to use when meetings resume this fall.

Once the A/C units for Emmanuel Hall arrive, we will be able to announce a date for our Grand Opening!

The Eucharistic Martyrs of Casamari

St. Simeon & Five Companions

Feast: February 3

Simeon Cardon lived in 18th-century France. He became a priest, and courageously refused to the oath for the civil constitution of the clergy during the French revolution. In 1797, he went to Casamari, Italy, where he became the prior of a Cistercian abbey.

During a French campaign in Italy in 1799, around 15 soldiers started pillaging monasteries. The Benedictine abbey of Monte Cassino was ransacked. Many monks fled, but a few remained to defend the Eucharist. On the evening of May 12th, the soldiers arrived at Casamari Abbey. Father Simeon offered them hospitality, but they were looking for money and valuables. Faced with their violence in desecrating the church and the ciborium containing the Eucharistic species, the monks tried to put the consecrated particles in safekeeping, but were barbarously attacked and killed.

Father Simeon hid briefly in the garden, but then bravely returned to his cell and was met with a sword's edge. He lived to tell the French general about the massacre the next day before he died. As soon as possible, some of the Brothers in the monastery cemetery buried Father Simeon and five companions. Many graces were granted through their intercession until the abbot ordered them to stop in 1854 in order to preserve the peace of the monastery. A few years later, this prohibition was lifted, the graces multiplied, and the mortal remains were placed in the abbey church. In 2021, the Eucharistic martyrs of Casamari were beatified by Pope Francis.

Merciful Lord, may we sacrifice ourselves for you in the Eucharist and witness the wonders that result.

Unexpected Benefits of Bible Study Groups

1. Bible Study groups follow Jesus' example. This is called the Discipleship model. Acts 2/42 tells us that first generation believers met in home and "devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship."

2. Accountability, we all have good intentions to stick with Bible study plans at home, yet distractions provide one reason after another to postpone or stop. Group members help to encourage and motivate each other.

3. Sometimes life is difficult. We can begin to think no one cares or understands what we are going through. Group members are there to listen and offer friendship and prayer.

4. By growing in understanding and knowledge of God, we can grow in love for one another and serve the body of Christ which will grow community.

5. A Bible Study group can be a place to transform our families, workplace and community.

Bible Studies begin in September. Consider signing up for one. Studies, times, and locations listed below.

ADMINISTRATION

Gifts of Stewardship

"The hand of the Lord feeds us," sings the psalmist; "He answers all our needs." Often, though, it is with the open hands of generous stewards willing to share His many gifts that God's people are fed and their needs are met. See Psalm 145
