The Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

"If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father." – Matthew 18:19

Happy Grandparents' Day!

A story time, A nursery rhyme,
The time you spend with me
Fills me up with happiness,
You're everything to me.

A heart so full of love and care,
I thank the world that you are there
To always be the one for me
That fills my hearts with memories.

Grandparents, grandparents,
They are the greatest people in the world.
Near or far, wherever you are,
always be my shining star.

A smiling face, A warm embrace,
A hand to hold, when I am cold,
Two arms that hold me oh so tight
And wish good dreams to me at night.

Blessing of all

GRANDPARENTS

Saints Who Promoted Eucharistic Adoration

St. Agnes of Montepulciano (1268-1317)

Feast: April 20

St. Agnes of Montepulciano was born in 1268 into an Italian noble family. There was no doubt that she was destined for heavenly glory. By the age of six, she already wanted to join a convent because of her love of God. To appease Agnes, her mother would frequently take her to visit convents in the vicinity.

At age nine, Agnes actually joined the Franciscans at Montepulciano, which was considered quite an anomaly. She was happiest when in contemplative prayer and when she was in ecstasy during her many visions of the Blessed Virgin.

St. Agnes lived on bread and water for 15 years and slept on a stone pillow. She actually received Holy Communion from the angels. Her dedication to the Blessed Sacrament was unmatched.

Our Lord appeared to St. Agnes and told her she was to leave the Franciscans to establish a Dominican community. Shortly thereafter, Our Lady presented her with three stones (denoting the Holy Trinity) and showed her the location where the community was to be built.

When her health diminished, the Sisters took her to the healing baths at Chianciano in hopes of a cure. Although Agnes was not cured, she performed a miracle on site. A young boy had fallen into the waters and drowned. His body was retrieved, so St. Agnes prayed over him, bringing him back to life. To this day, the baths are still known as the waters of St. Agnes.

Are You Prepared for Hurricane Season?

Hurricane season has begun, and now is the time to prepare your family for what may come. FEMA has a plan on their website: FEMA P-1094. Just enter the above form number in your search engine. Having your personal plan in place will make your family secure and make you better available to serve others in time of need. If you have special needs, please contact Donna at 225-261-4650.

There is great merit in praying for the best, but there is no harm in preparing for the worst!
