Today's readings encourage us to present our lives to God in the form of prayer and petitions that are full of gratitude. Let us, therefore, pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and religious life. If you think God is calling you to a Church vocation, contact Rev. Joshua Johnson at (225) 336-8778 or jjohnson@diobr.org.

Saints Who Promoted Eucharistic Adoration

St. Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938) Feast: October 5

St. Faustina was the third child of 10 born to a poor, religious family in Poland. She first felt a calling to religious life after attending an Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at the age of seven.

When she was 19, she experienced her first vision of Jesus. Faustina said Jesus told her to leave her home immediately and join a convent. In Warsaw, she approached a number of different convents but was repeatedly denied entry. Faustina was finally accepted by the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy. When she took her religious vows as a nun, she chose the religious name of Sr. Maria Faustina of the Blessed Sacrament.

Because of some chronic health issues, she was periodically sent to a sanatorium to recuperate. While convalescing, her visions increased. In 1931, Jesus came to her saying that he is the "King of Divine Mercy." He asked her to become the apostle and secretary of God's mercy. He wanted her to be a model of how to be merciful to others and an instrument for re-emphasizing God's plan of mercy for the world. He directed her to "paint an image according to the pattern you see" with the inscription "Jesus I Trust in You." The image was to be solemnly blessed on the First Sunday of Easter. From that point forward the First Sunday of Easter is celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday. As per Jesus' instructions, on the altar was a large painted image of the "King of Divine Mercy." Faustina continued her work, even facilitating the printing of Divine Mercy religious cards in 1937. Despite her death in 1938, her message continues to spread throughout the world.
