Featured Saint of the Week St. Lidwine of Schiedam (1380-1433) Feast Day: April 14

Lidwine was the first and only girl born into a poor family that had previously bore 8 boys. However they were all faith-filled and she grew up with a special affinity for the Blessed Virgin Mary. She even thought that her calling in life was to become a religious; God had other plans for her.

At the age of 15, Lidwine fell while ice skating and broke a rib. She never recovered, becoming increasingly disabled and was bedridden from a progressive paralysis for the rest of her life. Although there were several, one of the maladies that plagued her was a disease known as St. Anthony's Fire.

She acquired a reputation as a holy woman and a healer. While incapacitated, she received mystical gifts that included supernatural visions of heaven, hell, and purgatory. Additionally she had apparitions of Christ, as well as having been marked with the stigmata.

She has been credited with many acts of curing, charity, and providing food/nourishment to the needy which miraculously multiplied. Lidwine was not necessarily what is considered a conventional tool from God's toolbox, but he clearly utilized her and her talents to the fullest.

Pope Benedict XVI reminds us that no matter the extent of a person's disability he/she remains completely human and possesses inalienable rights endowed by the Creator.

"You are afraid to suffer, but it would be better to thank God for it, since the more you undergo down here, the less you will endure above. Grief is a portion of one's heritage taken in advance from Purgatory." -St. Lidwine

People have been making pilgrimages to her burial site since 1433, when she died at the age of 52.
