Fr. Jason's Wishful Thinking: Thank You for Supporting our Auction

Dear Parishioners and Friends in Christ,

Last weekend, we held our 16th annual Auction, Taste Fair, and $10,000 Raffle! Since our humble beginnings in 1898, the faithful Catholics of Greenwell Springs and beyond have supported the work of the Church through tithing and fundraising efforts. While the Church mainly exists to help us on our spiritual journey, it also provides a place for education, social events, and the promotion of culture. We are blessed at St. Alphonsus to have 67 ministries, over 3,000 registered families, and 464 students enrolled in our parochial school.

Following an immensely successful evening, I want to thank the many individuals who brought this year's event together.

First, I express appreciation to our parishioners, school families, and alumni who donated items and sponsorships.

Secondly, a world of thanks to our dedicated Auction Committee, who have worked tirelessly for several months in procuring items, planning and decorating, selling raffle tickets, setting up the auction items in the Gather Space of the church and the Parish Activity Center, preparing all of the games and the literature, and doing the necessary accounting work.

2026 Auction Committee:

Auction Chair: Kyle Cutrer

Sponsor Liaison: Tricia Hale

Staff Liaison: Lisa Lively

Table Watchers: Donna Alexander

Taste Fair: Jeanette Eisworth

Third, I wish to thank our caterers and the wait staff who efficiently helped to feed us all.

Last but not least, I wish to thank ALL OF YOU who attended this evening to support the mission of our church and school. This is our largest fundraiser of the year, which helps us to pay the construction loan on the Parish Activity Center (67.5% of the proceeds), and save for the future capital improvements at our school (32.5% of the proceeds).

Our community never fails to live up to our parish motto: "One Family United in Christ."

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Jason
