MISSION STATEMENT

*St. Alphonsus Liguori Parish celebrates the living waters of Christ by nourishing our Catholic community spiritually and academically
so that Christ may be known in our world.*

Featured Saint of the Week
Pope St. Peter Celestine V
(1212-1296)
Feast: May 19

Pope Celestine V was head of the Catholic Church and ruler of the Papal States for five months, from July 5, 1294 to December 13, 1296. He was originally a monk and hermit who founded the order of the Celestines, a more restrictive branch of the Benedictine order. Pope Gregory X sanctioned the order.

For more than two years after the death of Pope Nicholas IV in 1292, there was no pope, mainly because there was no official process for electing one. (This was prior to our current conclave system for papal election.) Because of the delay, Celestine sent a letter to the cardinals warning them that divine vengeance would fall upon them unless they could quickly elect a new pope.

Upon receipt of the letter, the Dean of the College of Cardinals announced: "In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, I elect brother Pietro di Celestine!" The cardinals immediately and unanimously ratified it, making Celestine the new pope in 1294. Although Celestine first refused the offer, he was eventually persuaded to accept.

Celestine felt ill-equipped for the position from the beginning. He felt his lack of experience, authority, and incompatibility with papal duties made the job more than he could perform. All he really wanted to do was to return to his former life as a hermit. Interestingly, he authored an edict in force to this day, giving the pope the right to resign. A week after signing the decree, Celestine did, in fact, resign!

His successor, Pope Boniface VIII wanted to protect his own position as pope, as he feared Celestine might seek installation as antipope. To prevent this, he had Celestine imprisoned. Celestine died ten months later at the age of 81.

Philip IV of France nominated Celestine for sainthood. He was canonized on May 5, 1313; this process, too, pre-dates present day requirements.

Prayer for Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

- Fr. Al Volpe, Cameron Parish, LA

The Light Keepers Youth Ministry

We are thrilled to announce the launch of The Light Keepers Youth Ministry—a vibrant group for youth in grades 6–12! Our weekly Sunday gatherings offer fun games, food, outings, peer support, and ministry opportunities grounded in God's Word.

Through fun youth events, engaging activities, and deep fellowship, we're building a space where teens can grow spiritually and shine brightly for Christ. We also actively invite parents, grandparents, and church members to get involved through volunteering, mentoring, prayer support, chaperoning, and event hosting.

The name "The Light Keepers" reflects our mission: to raise a generation of young people who become beacons of Christ's light in a world that can be dark at times, especially for teens. Our prayer is that these teens would set their surroundings ablaze with the hope, love, and truth found in Jesus Christ, drawing others to His eternal light.

Join us as we equip the next generation to shine boldly for God on every Sunday night in the Lighthouse from 5-8 PM.

Volunteers Needed

When was the last time you were personally asked to help? Christ asks us to share our faith and build His kingdom. Faith Formation spreads the Gospel message to the families, children, teens and adults of our parish. Come share your time, talents and faith with the people of our parish and grow your spirituality. Call the Faith Formation Office for more information at 225-261-4644.
